

PERPETUATION OF THE MEMORY OF THE CHICKASAW
AND SEMINOLE TRIBES OF INDIANS IN OKLAHOMA.

JANUARY 17, 1921.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CARTER, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 15085.]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 15085) to provide for the erection of monuments to perpetuate the memory of the Chickasaw and Seminole Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma, having had the same under consideration, begs leave to report it back to the House with recommendation that the bill do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 8, strike out the figures "$25,000" and insert "$15,000."

The affairs of the Chickasaw and Seminole Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma are now nearing a final settlement. The territory once controlled by these tribes has been divided up into counties in the State of Oklahoma.

It is provided in this bill to erect at Tishomingo, Okla., the former capital of the Chickasaw Nation, a monument upon which would be inscribed such parts of the history of the tribe as will perpetuate the memory of the tribe in the future years.

The bill also provides for the erection of a monument at Wewoka, the old capital of the Seminole Nation, upon which will be inscribed some of the history of the Seminole Tribe of Indians which, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, will perpetuate the memory of this tribe.

The appropriation to be from tribal funds of the respective tribes.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE GENERAL INVESTIGATION AND RESEARCH DIVISION OF THE BUREAU OF MARITIME SERVICE

Submitted to the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Maritime Service

Submitted to the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Maritime Service

REPORT

Submitted to the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Maritime Service

The following report was submitted to the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Maritime Service on January 1, 1914. It contains a summary of the work of the Bureau during the year 1913, and a statement of the progress of the various projects which are now being carried on. The report is divided into two parts, the first of which contains a general statement of the work of the Bureau, and the second of which contains a detailed statement of the progress of the various projects.

The first part of the report contains a general statement of the work of the Bureau during the year 1913. It shows that the Bureau has been very busy, and that it has accomplished a great deal of work. It has been successful in carrying out the various projects which have been assigned to it, and it has been able to keep the Bureau's work on a high level of efficiency.

The second part of the report contains a detailed statement of the progress of the various projects which are now being carried on. It shows that the Bureau is making good progress in all of its projects, and that it is well on its way to completing them. It also shows that the Bureau is planning to carry on its work in the future with the same efficiency and success as it has in the past.

The report concludes with a statement of the Commissioner of the Bureau of Maritime Service, who expresses his confidence in the future of the Bureau, and his belief that it will continue to make good progress in all of its projects. He also expresses his appreciation of the work of the various divisions of the Bureau, and of the assistance which they have given him in carrying out his duties.
